Schools in area open on Monday

It will be back to school next Monday, Sept. 13, as students in the high and elementary schools in the area swarm back to the halls of learning after the traditional summer vacation.

But there won't be as many kids on their way to school this year, for all the elementary schools in the area are expecting a decrease in enrollment.

St. Lucy's Catholic School and the Seventh Day Adventist School in Campbell started classes this week.

HIGH SCHOOL

Campbell Union High School District students—14,695 of them —will return to the district's eight schools Monday, Sept. 13.

Enrollment figures are up by 385 students over last year's starting date.

Some schools gained in student enrollment, others lost a few. Campbell is registering 1791 students compared to 1690 on opening day last year; Camden's figures are down 1708 from 1744; Del Mar, down 1612 from 1641; Blackford, down 1736 from 1752; Westmont, up 1763 from 1746; and Prospect up 1631 from 1585.

First day of school will be a minimum day for students, but a full work day for teachers and administrators. Campbell, Camden, Prospect, and Westmont students will attend from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on Sept. 13 while students at Del Mar and Blackford will go from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Faculties will meet before school in the morning and during the afternoon, readying classrooms for the first full day of classes Tuesday, Sept. 14.

SCHOOL HOURS

School hours will vary for students at various district schools this year in order that the best use may be made of existing school facilities. Opening and closing times include: Campbell—8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.; Camden—7:30 a.m. to 3:05 p.m.; Del Mar—8:30 a.m. to 3:05 p.m.; Blackford—8:30 a.m. to 3:05 p.m.; Westmont—8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. and Prospect—8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

There will be 95 new faces among the faculties at district schools. These include teachers who are returning from sabbaticals and leaves of absence. The entire ROTC staff will be new with Lt. Col. Arthur Eppley, USMC, Sgt. John Howard, and Sgt. Francis Gleason at Campbell.

ELEMENTARY

When the 19 schools in the Campbell Union (elementary) School District open next Monday, Sept. 13, an enrollment of 10,700 is expected, according to Fred Peterson, administrative assistant for the district.

The opening day enrollment is projected to be about 300 less than last year and there will be 10 less teachers in the district, although the average class size will be less.

A new counseling program will be in effect in the seventh and eighth grades this year, Peterson reports. The objective of the program will be to work with students in drug and other problems that involve the young people.

For the first time, there will be two counselors on duty at Campbell and Rolling Hills, and one each at Monroe, Cypress and Blackford.

The Family Life Education program, which was instituted last year, by board action, following the recommendation of a citizens committee, will again be in effect in the district.

District staff personnel emphasize, however, that all portions of FLE are optional.

Under the direction of Pearl Calabrese, food service supervisor, the cafeterias will be operating in all 19 schools of the district.

Lunches have been raised this year to 45-cents from the previous 35-cent price tag.

Jim D'Avis is acting superintendent of the district, pending the determination of the status of Neal Royer, former superintendent.

Fred Peterson is administrative assistant and C. E. (Brad) Bradley is business manager.

Mrs. Ruth Launer has been appointed to the previously unfilled position of director of instruction and Tony Perriera, a former principal in the district, is coordinator of special education and guidance.

About 135 students will be

Federal funds allow five city personnel

Under the emergency employment act of the federal government, the City of Campbell will receive funding for five additional personnel, City Manager Bob Stephens reported this week.

The City Council next Monday, Sept. 13, is expected to approve the agreement with the county which will authorize receiving $36,908 in federal funds. The city's financial share will be $4,101, but the outlay will be in services and not in cash.

The Council is also expected next Monday to authorize an agreement with the Department of Human Resources involving displaced workers.

The personnel under the emergency employment program will be employed for a 10 or 11-month period. Three of the employees will be in the fire department and will be classified as apprentice firemen.

The other two employees will be in the police department and be classified as police desk officers.

On Monday also the City Council is also expected to authorize the payment of all but $13,300 in the funds remaining of the contract for Frazier Construction Co., general contractors of the city hall. The fund total now stands at $76,857.90.

Contracts for storm drains in the San Tomas are scheduled to be awarded on Monday night. Bids were opened this week.

Also on the agenda is a request of John Dennis Erickson, of the Iron Apple at 354 E. Campbell Ave. for permission to have live entertainment consisting of the folk music variety at that location.

Mission Yellow Cab Co. is requesting the authorization of a rate increase within the city limits and the City Council is also slated to take first action on the zone change recommendation of the Planning Commission for the area from Barbano Drive to the freeway. The Commission has recommended P-D (planned development) for that sector.

Up for discussion also will be the recommendation that an employee recognition and suggestion program be established.

SDA SCHOOL OPENS

Seventh Day Adventist West Valley School opened Sept. 7 with an enrollment of 147 pupils.

The school, which will be open on Admissions Day, started right off with a full day schedule.

David Escobar is the new principal of West Valley School. Also new on the faculty will be John Grades, eighth grade teacher, and Bart Machado, sixth grade teacher.

TREE IS DOOMED--Disappointed city officials this week were unhappily pondering the fate of the huge pine tree adjacent to the city hall. The tree has become diseased and must be removed, according to Jim Cope of Cope Tree Service, who was called in when the pine needles first began to turn brown.

City officials had been insistent that the new city hall building should not interfere with the tree and a protective wall was built around it. It has been estimated that it will cost $550 to remove the tree. Various alternatives for a replacement are expected to be presented to the City Council next Monday, Sept. 13, by the landscape architect.

BARCLAYS
BANK

OPENS MONDAY IN NEW BUILDING---Barclays Bank will officially open its new banking facility in town next Monday, Sept. 13, at 10 a.m. with ribbon cutting ceremonies in which civic officials will participate. The new building is located on Hamilton Ave. just off Winchester Blvd. (There will be access from Winchester as well as Hamilton.) On Friday, Sept. 10 Barclays will close down their present bank at Winchester and Latimer, where the bank has been located since June, 1961.

Barclays in Dec., 1969 purchased the First Valley Bank. Bob Blonder, who was manager of the First Valley Bank when Barclays acquired it, has continued as manager under Barclays. The bank has been in operation for more than 300 years and has more than 5400 worldwide branches, ranking fourth in total resources. The new bank building in Campbell has more than 4500 square feet on the ground floor and more than 50 parking spaces are available for customers. One of the special features will be the drive-up teller facilities.

St. Lucy's enrollment decreases

St. Lucy's School opened Tuesday with an enrollment of 283, approximately 20 less than last year.

Because of the smaller enrollment, there are eight classes this year instead of 10. There are also two less teachers.

No classes will be held Thursday, Admission Day, but the school will resume with a full schedule on Friday. Yesterday and today, Sept. 7 and 8, St. Lucy's classes were let out at 1:30.

Sister Michela Sheehan, principal of the school, also serves as part-time eighth-grade teacher.

Mrs. Gloria Osborne is the seventh grade teacher, Sister Eileen is the sixth grade teacher, while Sister Margaret is the regular eighth grade teacher.

Sister Alberta Marie instructs the fifth grade, Mrs. Margaret Nelson the fourth grade, and Mrs. Judith Holcomb, the third grade.

Mrs. Barbara Lawless teaches second graders, and Mrs. Susan Morley teaches first grade pupils.

Mrs. Anna Mae Miller supervises the reading guidance center, along with Mrs. Joanne Vincenzini, her assistant.

SOME OF OUR CONTEMporaries in the field of journalism take issue with us when we report so-called "gimmicks" by public relations people in this column or elsewhere in the paper.

They claim that when we publicize for free these efforts, whether clever or otherwise, on the part of the PR gang, we are acting unfairly toward the bread-and-butter advertisers of the newspaper who shell out dough for the space they use in the newspapers.

There is, of course, considerable merit in this criticism.

Literally hundreds of publicity handout pieces are received daily by this newspaper and our operation is miniscule when compared to our big brethern in the field.

The office wastepaper basket overflows each day with the mimeographed "news" releases received from firms from all over.

Most of them follow the same set pattern, i.e., expanding some action of a company into several pages that, from a standpoint of news value, could be contained in one paragraph.

Most editors neither have the time nor the inclination to peruse these handouts. Consequently, most get the "deep six" of "file 13" treatment without a second thought.

But the great mimeograph stream continues.

And the basket overfloweth.

INFREQUENTLY, HOWever, a different approach is used by some public relations guy that provides a welcome respite from the mundane output to which most of us are pretty much immune.

True, most of the time the objective is the same, i.e., to get the firm mentioned in the news columns. But often we find the gimmicks that are used both interesting and unique.

So we mention them.

Of course, we are being naive and gullible.

But still some of them are downright clever.

TAKE, AS A CASE IN point, a tiny package that recently came in the mail addressed to us and mailed from San Francisco with no return address.

(Obviously we first held it to our ear. We heard no ticking sound, so we unwrapped it.)

Inside were a number of items, including a card that had on the outside: "Happy Birthday! Tia Maria".

Inasmuch as our birthday is still months away we sort of wondered about that.

On the inside of the card was the message: "It's our birthday and we want you to celebrate with us. But since three years isn't very old, we're having just a small party.

"In fact, this is it.

"Buen apetito, George Martinez".

The other items included a small package of "Jiffy" cake mix, a happy birthday napkin, a green balloon with three tiny candles attached.

Tia Maria, by the way, is the attractive restaurant that recently opened in Campbell on Hamilton Ave. next to Breuner's. It is the fourth one that has been opened in the East Bay and Peninsula in the last three years.

We thought it was a clever approach.

So, we have told you about it.

Land use and zoning

A study was recently completed by the Planning Department of the City of Campbell to determine the existing land use, existing zoning and planned land uses of the city and surrounding county areas based on the "Specific Area Land Use Plans" that were in effect on April 1, 1971.

The results of the study were very revealing and, in some instances, surprising, especially as to how much undeveloped land remains in the city and how much land is used for single-family development.

Three sets of tables were used to show the comparison between existing zoning and land use. The tables indicated the acres of land currently used as low, low-medium, medium and high density residential, commercial, industrial, etc.

Each set of tables included the area (1) within the city limits (2) the county area that Campbell may annex (3) the projected minimum city area and (4) county area that either San Jose or Campbell may annex and (5) projected maximum city area.

One set of tables was devoted to the relationship of existing zoning to existing land use. Another set showed the relationship of planned land use to existing land use and the other showed the relationship of existing zoning to the planned land use.

It was a comprehensive study and should prove invaluable as a guideline for planning.

Although the study was prepared for the City Council and Planning Commission, the results should also be of interest to all of us who are concerned with the Campbell of today and the future.

For example 425.98 acres or 14% of the city is undeveloped at the present time. Incidentally the present city limits contain 2,977.19 acres.

According to the tables, the projected maximum area of the city would contain 4,097 acres. The "maximum" means the county area that only Campbell could annex plus the area that either San Jose or Campbell could acquire under the boundary agreements between the two cities.

Another rather interesting result gleaned from the study was that at the present time 1,130.26 acres or 48% of the total is zoned for single-family homes. Of this total, however, 761.21 acres is now being used for single-family dwellings and 259.49 acres of it is for public and quasi-public use.

And the table also shows that there are 96.86 acres now zoned for R-1 still undeveloped.

Current plans for the undeveloped land (425.98 acres) based on the land use plan call for 47.72 acres for low-density residential development; 36.30 acres for low-medium density; 102.71 for commercial; 92.06 for industrial; 62.41 for high-density; 40.39 for medium density, etc.

We thought one of the highlights of the study was the relationship of the existing zoning to planned land use.

In other words, should we expect drastic zoning changes in the future to correspond with the intended use?

The study indicated that for the most part, the zoning that is in existence today, to a great degree, fits the planned land use of the future.

For example, there are 761.21 acres of the total area (1,130.26) now zoned R-1 (single-family) being used for low density residences. The planned land use calls for 734.57 acres to be used for single-family, only a minor drop.

There are many conclusions one can draw from the tables and the study that the planning department made.

Some of the conclusions, of course, could be without foundation.

And, obviously, there is another basic point to consider.

Without a crystal ball, no one can pinpoint how the changes that are bound to come in the future will affect any general plan.

It is our conclusion, however, after our attempt at studying the tables, that a good and sound guideline has been established for the city.

No radical zone change will be necessary to adjust to the conditions that are anticipated to arise as far as land use is concerned.

The tables indicate that the City of Campbell is now and should be in the future a well-balanced city both from a zoning and land use point of view.

Six illustrations are used in the "major new projects" layout.

We thought that was worth mentioning.

WITH 16 CANDIDATES filing for the one trustee vacancy on the West Valley College governing board we have scurried around trying to discover whether that's a new record or something.

We are not certain about the record, but it really is something.

Or something else.

IN FACT WE WERE SO intrigued by this army of trustee candidates that we spotted their home addresses on the wall map.

As you are probably aware, the vacancy exists on the college board because of the untimely death of Bill Homan. The successful candidate in the special election on Oct. 26 will serve until Homan's term expires in 1975.

The college district comprises three high school districts, Campbell, Los Gatos-Saratoga and Santa Clara.

Each district is represented on the board through an established formula.

Bill Homan was one of the representatives from the Campbell High School District so his replacement must also reside in the Campbell district, although the entire district votes in the election.

All the 16 candidates must reside in the Campbell Union High School District.

That covers a lot of territory.

And those spots on our map really prove that.

-0-

WE SPENT SO MUCH time locating the streets on the map on which the candidates live that we really must report our "findings" here to justify the hours involved.

We really did not "prove" anything.

But it was sort of interesting.

For example, 14 of the 16 reside east of the freeway, and nine of those are in the most southern portion of the district south of Branham Lane.

We had a little trouble marking the home addresses on the map of two of the candidates.

They reside on the same street.

Apparently next door to each other at 1608 and 1606 Inglis Ave.

Only the Rev. Ben Gould and Charles Tillers are from the westside of the freeway. Ben resides in the heart of Campbell at 200 Kamson Way while Tillers lives on Parkland between Payne and Williams.

We had to stop our "research" for the time being, after we got through marking up our map, because of the time we had already consumed in this extra-curricular pastime.

We were intrigued by these next-door two neighbors on Inglis running for the one spot that is open on the board.

We wanted to chit-chat with them for our own edification, if nothing else.

But we couldn't find their phone numbers in the directory.

We imagine there can be all kinds of conclusions drawn from this mass filing, either real or imaginary.

One thing is pretty certain, however.

It will take a good-sized ballot.

REMODELING CLASS

A basic home planning and remodeling course will be offered at West Valley College beginning Sept. 14.

Each Tuesday and Thursday evening from 7 to 10 p.m. through Jan. 27 students will study basic residential construction including building materials, design and construction terminology.

Moreland, Cambrian expect decrease in enrollment

A growing decline in enrollment is one of the problems facing many schools in this area, according to school officials of the Moreland and Cambrian districts. Schools in both districts open next Monday, Sept. 13.

Moreland School District anticipates an enrollment of 8,465, or 200 less than last year.

Nevertheless, one school nurse and two speech therapists have been added to the staff of Moreland School District, according to Bob Williams, district official.

The Cambrian School District with 10 schools, has averaged a 37% decline in enrollment over the last three years, according to Delos Bagby, superintendent.

The district anticipates an enrollment of 1550 or 300 less than last year.

Because of the decline a nine teacher staff reduction was needed. The last teachers hired must draw for priority, according to legal procedure.

CofC TO MEET

The board of directors of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce will meet next Thursday, Sept. 16, at Renzo's. The first membership luncheon since May will be held at the Royal Fork on the following Thursday, Sept. 30.

STORY HOUR

Preschool story hour will begin Wednesday, Sept. 15, at 10 a.m. at the Campbell Library.

Two major thefts take place here

Martin & Martin Construction Co. of 600 Marithon Ave., has been the victim of two grand thefts within the last two weeks, according to reports of Campbell Police.

The goods, totalling $635 were stolen after 11 p.m., when the last guard left.

The first theft, a loss of $216 worth of lumber beams, occurred August 23.

On Sept. 1, 25 sheets of fine plywood, and other construction materials amounting to $419, were stolen.

Because of the double theft, police say a patrol check will be made of the area.

Ema Hervia, of E. Campbell Ave., was the victim of an even larger theft when her home was forcibly entered, recently.

Jewelry and a tv set, amounting to $875 were taken around noon time.

The burglar kicked open the rear doors of her residence, and left a faded pair of green garden gloves, as evidence, according to reports of Campbell Police.

Ticking ahead with the clock tower

During the past week, shortened because of the Labor Day holiday, only $80 was received for the city hall clock tower fund, Len Edholm, Chamber of Commerce manager, reported.

The total now in the fund is $566, far short of the $1700 that is needed. Special projects, sponsored by the CofC, have raised $3000 of the $5000 cost of the tower.

Committee members this week made a special appeal for donations from all citizens in the community emphasizing that the clock tower is a citizen's involvement project.

Contributing this week were Barclays Bank, Lowell Grattan, Wells Fargo and Walter Elkey.

Contributions can be made at the CofC office, 100 W. Rincon or sent to "Clock Tower", c/o CofC, P. O. Box 85.

FOR EVERYONE!

WITH THIS HAND---A friendly handshake is always welcome and United Fund campaign leaders in the Campbell area hope all residents will consider their "Fair Share" gift this year as their handshake of concern for the entire community. UF General Chairman for Campbell, Dean Vesling of IBM, left, joins with General Chairman of the Central Area Chapter, A. L. Scheideler of General Electric, and Joseph D. Geist of Wells Fargo Bank, Campbell commerce and industry chairman, to "reach out" to the community. Campbell campaigners hope to top last year's "giving" figure of $55,968.

Cap'ns Galley features majestic pipe organ

By Tom Carroll

The drums go bang and the cymbals clang; the trumpets blare but it's not a brass band. It is the mighty Wurlitzer Theatre Pipe Organ in the Cap'ns Galley, Hamilton Plaza Shopping Center, Bascom and Hamilton Avenues.

This instrument is more than just a Wurlitzer; it is really the work of three organ builders. Seventeen ranks were built by Wurlitzer and nine by Robert Morton. The two were then wed by the late and great Buddy Cole.

Cole secured the Morton side of the organ in 1947 from a Los Angeles radio station which had acquired it from the United Artists Studios. U.A. had gotten it from a Marshalltown, Iowa, theater.

The larger portion, the Wurlitzer, was purchased from the Los Angeles United Artists Theater in 1959. Cole then spent the next two years redesigning, rebuilding and joining the two instruments into one great organ. The combined instrument resided in his home where pipe organ enthusiasts say some of the finest recordings ever heard were produced.

After Cole's death the organ was removed from his home and shipped to Newport News, Virginia. It remained in storage until last year when Bill Breuer purchased it and moved it to Campbell. It has taken eight technicians over 12 months to repair, rebuild and install this magnificent instrument in the Cap'ns Galley, 1690 S. Bascom.

With 1,970 pipes and weighing more than 23,000 pounds, the mighty organ not only sounds impressive, it looks impressive. Outside the sound chamber, in the main room, are the percussion instruments, train whistles, fire bells, auto horns, etc., the myriad of instruments necessary for the unique sound of the theatre organ.

Seated at the console of the 26 rank, three manual organ is a man that is unique in his own right. Ralph Trout III, is one of 12 surviving heart transplants at the Stanford Medical Center. Besides being a good organist, Ralph is also a good showman, holding the audience in the palm of his hand. By choosing certain music, "I can make them eat or drink or stop and listen, anything I want," he says laughingly.

Ralph can be heard Tuesdays through Saturdays, with Larry Vannucci at the keyboard on Sunday evenings.

This is the third Cap'ns Galley that Bill Breuer has opened in the Bay Area. The others, 3581 Homestead Rd., Santa Clara and 821 Winslow St., Redwood City also have theatre pipe organs.

While the music is only in the evenings, the Cap'ns Galley is also open for lunch. There are 16 different kinds of pizza on the menu as well as sandwiches.

"CABARET" AUDITIONS

San Jose Music Theatre will be holding auditions for the major musical production, "Cabaret", on Sept. 10 and 11 at 7:30 p.m. at 458-A Willow St., San Jose.

"Cabaret", winner of eight Tony Awards, has openings for a large cast of actors, dancers and singers.

The entire production will be staged and directed by George Costa, choreography numbers staged by Mina Garman and music direction by Richard Jorgensen.

Phone 286-6841 for further information.

EASTER SEAL BENEFIT

The San Jose Junior Auxiliary to the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Santa Clara County will hold a "Rootin' Tootin' Roundup" at Frontier Village starting at 7 p.m. on Sept. 10. The fund-raising event is open to adult guests.

Enrollment to increase at West Valley College

West Valley College opens its doors for the fall semester on Sept. 13. College officials expect that 11,000-12,000 students will register for both day and night classes by the time school begins.

This will be higher than the 10,500 students who were registered this past year. To handle the increased load the college will have 200 faculty members on hand.

The students will have a new campus facility at Saratoga to attend this fall. The Campus Center, finished this summer, will be available to students this fall. Named "The Hall" (in honor of West Valley College's first president, Dr. Wallace W. Hall), the facilities include a snack bar, large dining room, lounge area, outdoor patio and a game room. The Student Senate and the InterClub Council have offices in the new building and will conduct many of their meetings there.

The building was built with a loan from the federal government, which the students will begin to pay back this fall in the form of a campus center fee.

Students will also receive instruction in the new language arts-social science complex on the Saratoga campus, which was also completed this past year.

Final completion date for the Saratoga campus is not as yet known, but when completed the campus will additionally house a physical education complex, humanities and fine arts building, library, business education-student personnel-administration building and a warehouse. A science-math complex, an engineering technology building and a food services center are already in existence.

Scientists claim that the distance any river is straight does not exceed 10 times its width at that point.

Double ring rites unite Westmont grads

Exchanging rings and vows in an afternoon ceremony at St. Lucy's Church were Dolores Ann Mercado, and Robert Arthur Holman.

The bride wore a gown of val de rose lace over English net that billowed from the waist to a regal sweep of skirt and train. Her veil was secured by an organza bride's hat with tiny flowers and an elbow length ribbon.

Janis Mercado, sister of the bride, wore a floor length yellow print gown, and carried a basket of yellow and white daisies.

Bridesmaids, Mrs. Dan Wilkes, and Merry Lee Holman, the bridegroom's sister, also wore yellow print gowns.

The bride carried a bouquet of carnations, pompoms, daisies, and baby's breath.

Dolores and Robert, both Westmont High School graduates, were both escorted down the aisle, by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mercado, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holman, of Campbell.

Michael Baldinger was best man for the couple, while the ushers were Dan Wilkes, Ron Baranick, Jerry Griffith, and Mike Bliesener.

Special music for the wedding was provided by three guitars, in the form of a folk mass.

A four tiered cake, made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Ed Grijalva, was served at the Los Gatos Lodge reception, before the newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Holman left for Southern California.

The new couple plans a future home in Los Gatos.

Newlyweds make home in Campbell

MR. and MRS. DENNIS W. RUSSELL

Following a honeymoon in the High Sierra's, the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Russell, are making their home in Campbell.

Lynn Marie Anderson was united to Dennis H. Russell at St. Lucy's Church in a double-ring ceremony performed by Father Brennan.

The bride was sheathed in a custom-made silk organza gown, trimmed with blue applique; and veiled in silk chiffon.

She carried a basket bouquet of baby's breath, pink rose buds, daisies, mums and carnations.

The bride, a Campbell High graduate, was attended by Belen Bernal, matron of honor; and Darlene Lupien, bridesmaid.

Belen and Darlene, attired in gowns of sheer blue nylon, trimmed with blue satin, also carried baskets of spring flowers.

Lynn was given in marriage by her father, Merlin Anderson, of San Jose.

Lynn's mother wore a sheer blue coat-dress ensemble, and a pink orchid corsage.

Dennis Russell works at PG&E and attends night school at West Valley College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Russell.

Dennis chose Earl Bernal as his best man. His ushers were Rob Anderson, brother of the bride, Bill Menkemeller, Howard Rogers, and Ruben de La Pena.

A lovely wedding cake, hors d'oeuvres, and champagne punch were the special treats at the wedding reception for Mr. and Mrs. Russell.

PARCEL NUMBERING SYSTEM EXPLANATION

Engaged

The engagement of JoAnne Nunes and William Robert Ridgway was announced recently at a dinner party at Villa Felice.

JoAnne, an alumna of Campbell High, is a junior at San Jose State. She is employed by the Campbell Elementary School District.

Her fiance', also a Campbell High graduate, is a senior at the University of Santa Clara.

At the party, given by William's parents, the couple announced plans of a June wedding.

Women form education unit for March of Dimes program

Mrs. Arnold Gilfix of Campbell is among seven Santa Clara County women who have joined together to form a Women's Activities Committee, National Foundation - March of Dimes, as an additional education arm of the county chapter.

The group became aware of the availability of educational materials and information, as well as the need for their distribution, when they participated in the January Mothers' March against birth defects, a fund drive in support of The National Foundation - March of Dimes.

Genetic counseling, medical services and prenatal information are subjects about which many residents know little, according to Mrs. Gilfix.

In addition to the Campbell resident, members of the group are Mrs. Gary P. Wozadlo, Mrs. Sy Witover, Mrs. Patrick Jardin, Mrs. William T. Sullivan, all of San Jose; Mrs. Stanley Ginther of San Martin and Mrs. Julius Sabia of Santa Clara.

They expect to be contacting different individuals and organizations in the community to enlist support for the program that will cut down on the number of birth defective babies; currently a quarter million defective infants are born each year in the United States.

This figure can be cut by proper prenatal care, by genetic counseling to ascertain if young marrieds are "carriers" of certain genes, and by other preventive measures such as rubella vaccinations.

This will be a year-round effort to augment the January Mothers' March.

STUDY PROGRAM--Mrs. Arnold Gilfix of Campbell (right) and Mrs. Stanley Ginther of Morgan Hill go over materials on birth defects prevention which they hope to distribute as members of the new Santa Clara County women's activities committee of the National Foundation - March of Dimes. Information about programs which will be presented before group meetings and about informational materials on birth defects available to the public is available by calling 292-1322.

Vanguard drill team wins national honors

In a competition with 126 choice drum and bugle corps, the Santa Clara Vanguard Corps representing Lt. Byron Lanphear, Post 6305 VFW, Campbell, walked off with first place honors.

The event, staged by the "Million Dollar Pageant of Drums" convention, was held in Dallas, Texas, on Aug. 20.

The Vanguards arrived home the day after their victory to face a rousing welcome at Townsend Field, Santa Clara.

Many members and friends attended the welcome, and enjoyed the Vanguard's show.

In a special moment at the welcome, Commander Robert Foster presented a check from Post 6305 to the Vanguards.

The Vanguards recently did a benefit performance for Muscular Dystrophy at the Oakland Raiders Football game.

Commander Edward Williams and Lorraine Kelley, president, who accompanied the corps to Dallas, pledged District support to the Vanguards, for their journey to the Minneapolis National Convention, where they will defend their title in 1972.

The Post is currently looking forward to the State Drum and Bugle Corps meet on Oct. 2, at Townsend Field, Santa Clara.

County offers "Tele-Care" for those who live alone

Every morning at 9 o'clock the telephone gives a reassuring ring at the home of Mrs. Viola Gilmore in Campbell.

Mrs. Gilmore, a spritely 77, always hurries to answer, even though she knows who the caller will be. It's a volunteer at Santa Clara Valley Medical Center, asking how she is.

"I'm always glad to get the call", says Mrs. Gilmore, a widow who never gets very far away from her small wooden frame house.

Mrs. Gilmore is a pioneer member of the Tele-Care service, a free public system, created by seven area hospitals, and operated 365 days a year.

The purpose of the Tele-Care calls is to give elderly persons who are disabled, or who live alone, like Mrs. Gilmore, daily assurance that someone will know if she's become ill or unable to reach the telephone.

Elderly, ill or lonely persons may enroll in Tele-Care by calling the hospital of their choice. Member hospitals are Alexian Brothers, Valley Medical Center, The Good Samaritan, O'Connor's, Park Alameda, San Jose Hospital and Los Gatos-Saratoga Community Hospital.

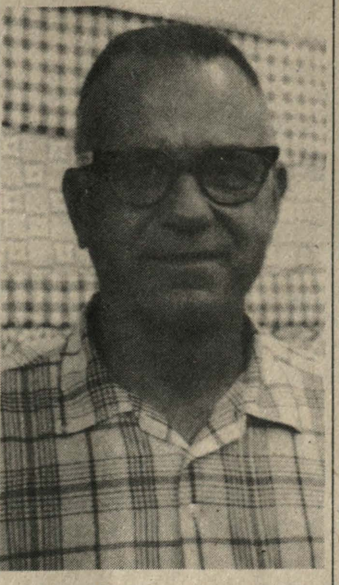
Grant Bringhurst to close Laurel Variety store here

by Carl A. Winther

After more than 15 years in business as the Laurel Variety & Toy Store, Grant Bringhurst has announced that he will soon be closing his doors. The Laurel Variety has been one of the main drawing cards for the Campbell Shopping Center on Winchester Blvd. near Hamilton Ave.

Bringhurst this week starts his store-wide "Going out of Business" sale, with every item in the store marked down from 20 to 50% and more.

"With little time left on our lease", Bringhurst said, "we've been forced to sell out as quickly as possible. This will also give my wife and me a chance to pass on some real savings to the hundreds of loyal friends and customers we've built up here since coming to Campbell from San Carlos."



GRANT BRINGHURST

Before coming to Campbell, Bringhurst had been associated with the Laurel Variety store in San Carlos for a number of years. A native of Murray, Utah, Bringhurst attended grammar and junior high school in Murray and was graduated from Granite High school in Salt Lake City. He later attended Utah State at Logan before joining the staff of the Greyhound Bus system, where he remained for 15 years before moving to California.

Bringhurst's grandparents were among the original Mormon pioneer settlers of Utah, coming across country in the historic hand cart migration. Married in Utah to Olive Robins of Kaysville, the Bringhursts have two children, Larry, 24, an employee of the IBM card plant in Campbell and Sandra, 26, who is married and lives in San Francisco.

The Bringhursts future plans are indefinite, although it is certain to include a well-deserved vacation before going on to further endeavors.

New theater group holds final tryouts Thursday

Civic Actors Seminar Theater (C.A.S.T.) is a new theater group recently organized for the Campbell community. Tryouts will be held this Thursday, Sept. 9 from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. at Bennett Hall at the Campbell Congregational Church.

The theater group was formed to provide a year-round means of expression for young people and adults.

According to the founders of the drama group, they want to contribute to community spirit by locating near the center of Campbell where activities will be easily accessible for Campbell young people without transportation.

A constitution and bylaws have been drawn up for C.A.S.T. by Campbell residents, Mrs. Gene Hofer, Mrs. Richard Angulo; founders and Mrs. Jack Green.

The first junior theater production, "Angel's Alley", will be a benefit show with all proceeds to be donated to needy local groups or charities.

The musical is a story of the early 1900's, centered around the coast of England. Uncle Charley, a traveling man, and his young nephew meet up with a gang of teens, and their friend, Angel.

Angel, a "fish woman", mother to the gang, leads them through a plot of mystery and comedy. An element of surprise promises to intrigue the audience.

Playing the part of Uncle Charley will be Tom Anderson, guest tenor. All other parts are open.

For more information, call 379-8885.

Chorale group holds final auditions

The Aversente Chorale is now holding its final auditions for the 1971-72 season. There are still a few openings for additional singers—especially tenors and basses.

Interested persons should contact June Rowe, Secretary, at 356-7762 before Friday, Sept. 17.

The 36 voice chorale performs a varied repertory that includes sacred and classical works, folk songs, spirituals, madrigals, and Broadway Musical scores.

In addition to three local concerts, the group is also planning a number of programs for various organizations throughout the Bay Area.

Major works to be sung this season will include: Gloria in D. Major by A. Vivaldi, The Coffee Cantata by J. S. Bach, Nutcracker Suite by P. Tschaikovsky, and the musicals West Side Story and The Sound of Music.

The requirements for membership include previous experience as well as a moderate degree of sight reading ability.

DARTING AROUND

with Tom Carroll

The North American Open Dart Tournament is now a thing of the past and Nor-Cal's doubles champions Jim and Ben Macredes, managed to eke out a third place finish. Their only loss of the afternoon was at the hands of the Champions, Frank Bair and Gus Poplier. After defeating the Macredes, Bair and Poplier took the East Coast team of Bob Thiede and Robin Varian for the title.

Bair, originally from Pennsylvania, moved to the West Coast eight weeks ago. He now lives in Semi and plays for the Game Room in Canoga Park. Most of his darting experience has been playing "baseball darts". He is not completely familiar with our game of 301 and kept asking his partner what he should shoot next. Gus Poplier said, "I just tell him what to hit and he hits it."

SINGLES CHAMPION

While Bob Thiede had to defeat his doubles partner Robin Varian for the championship, the semi-final match between Thiede and Frank Bair held the most interest. Both men had been shooting tons (100) or better throughout the afternoon.

Bair started off slow with a 12-away. Thiede put on the early pressure by hitting a 107-away. Bair came back with a 50. Thiede popped a ton leaving 94. With the pressure mounting Bair pops a ton leaving a 139. Thiede shoots 54 to set up a double 20 out. Bair, still not shook, pops another ton. Thiede hits the double 20 on his twelfth dart.

The second game went to Bair in 15 darts. Pressure took its toll in the final game as both darters took 21 darts to get to their double. As if that wasn't bad enough, then they each threw another 15 darts trying to get out, before Thiede hit the double 1 for the match.

NOR-CAL FINISHERS

More than 300 dart players were on hand for the competition. 214 were entered in the Singles with 144 pairs playing in the Doubles. There were also 54 five-man teams and 42 gals entered in the Ladies Singles.

The best finish in the singles by a Nor-Cal player was the Scarlet La Rue's Kip Fanjoy. Kip took third last year, but didn't fair as well this year. He was defeated by Frank Bair and tied for fifth, taking home $50 for his afternoon's labor.

Other Nor-Cal darters to take home money were Pat O'Donnell and Paul Schultz, who tied for 9th and took home $16 each. Tying for 17th and getting $8 each were Gary Curtaz, Stan Brassey and Gus Frati.

Those Nor-Cal players who lost in the first round were: Phil Albers, Jim Nakasuji, Rick Miller, Ted Allen, Dave Pena, Bill Kaye, Sorn Sakbodin, Ski Solinski, Pete Wakeham and Charles Youlder.

Those dropping out at the 64 player cut-off were Larry Beekley, Doug Christer, Brian Coy, Jim Macredes and John Glaze. Tying for 33rd and not getting into the money were Ben Macredes, Paul Hibbert and this reporter.

Only one of our Nor-Cal Ladies survived the first round of the Ladies Singles; that was Maureen Coy of the Two Flags Pub in Novato.

Maureen made the second round only to be defeated by Eleanor Loocke. The title went to Gerry Dover of Mar Vista, who defeated Jerrine DeFratis of Rialto for the title.

College offers unique program for industries

West Valley College trustees Thursday night authorized a unique new program designed to serve the special needs of industries in the area.

The program would focus on individuals within industry and is designed to qualify them for first-level supervisory positions. Industries have indicated a great desire in providing these types of positions to ethnic minorities.

Officials of West Valley College have been meeting with officials of industries in the area to discuss the problem of training such people for supervisory positions and how to go about it. There are only a smattering of courses in this area now being offered. This program would be the first full-fledged endeavor of its kind.

As Superintendent James P. Hardy said, "Four year colleges and universities in the area offer outstanding programs in management.

"However, the program to be offered by West Valley College is unique in that there are no other programs nationally designed to train first line supervisors".

There are four dimensions to the program: a physical facility (West Valley College); an instructional program; lectures, seminars, workshops and special programs; and a program coordinator.

Thursday night trustees created the position of coordinator of the program. He will hold the position through June 30, 1972.

It is hoped that some lectures in the program can be offered this fall, with courses to be implemented during the spring semester.

In other action Thursday night trustees:

Approved 28 non-graded, non-credit classes for adults offered by the Office of Community Services. They include: body conditioning for women, organic gardening, consumer services seminar, self defense for women and a pre-ski exercise clinic.

Approved the annual student teaching agreement with San Jose State College whereby students enrolled at SJS teach one or two courses at West Valley under the supervision of master teachers.

Approved the following personnel items: Promoted Stephen Keller to supervisor of facilities planning and construction: promoted Mrs. Mary Johnson to typist clerk III at the Saratoga service center; and hired Thomas Beauchamp, bookstore assistant; Ruth Burwick, PBX-receptionist; Sandra Edwards, typist clerk II; Edward Ferreira, health services-athletic trainer; and Stephen Hernandez, custodian.

Night class signup at WV remains open

Late registration for evening classes still open at West Valley College will be held Sept. 13 from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Campbell student union.

This registration is for open evening classes only.

Those interested in registering for evening classes must bring their social security card with them and complete a fact sheet for registration purposes.

Mandatory fees of $6 for less than 10 units and $10 for students carrying over 10 units will be collected during registration. The fees include the campus center fee and a health insurance fee.

Music groups to rehearse

The West Valley College Symphony, under Cesare Claudio's direction, will meet each Thursday from 7 to 10 p.m. in the Campbell campus band room from Sept. 16 through Jan. 29.

Each Monday night, from Sept. 20 through June 5, the Los Gatos-Saratoga Symphony will meet from 7 to 10 p.m. in the Fisher School band room. John O'Neill will conduct.

Campbell resident stars on U.S. water polo team

Steve Barnett, a Campbell resident and the swimming coach at Cupertino High, doubles as a goalie for the United States Water Polo team. Steve won a gold medal recently for the outstanding game he played against the Cubans, at the Pan-American Games in Cali, Colombia.

Steve was also a member of the 1967 Pan-American team. His involvement with water polo started with the winning De Anza Water Polo team.

Steve was selected by the De Anza Aquatic Foundation to train at a special camp in Los Angeles. From Los Angeles he joined the U.S. team as goalie.

Steve leaves for Europe on Sept. 13, to defend the Adriatic Cup, the first time an American water polo team has been invited to enter.

A Family Affair
Nothing beats the sheer fun and stimulation you get from a ride on a Schwinn bike. More and more healthy, hearty outdoor enthusiasts are losing themselves to the charm and excitement of modern cycling.
The young in heart are turning to bicycles to get the best out of life. You see them everywhere . . . happy, healthy people who know the benefits of regular exercise.
"We ought to replace the automobile with bicycles . . . it would be better for our coronaries, our disposition, and certainly our finances."
"I think the bicycle is one of the great unappreciated vehicles for good, wholesome exercise that can be continued to a considerable age."
. . . Dr. W. W. Bauer, director emeritus, Bureau of Health Education, American Medical Association.*
